

Be One of My Own

A                    E            A            E
Come out of the shadows; out of the rain
A                    E    B7 A            E
Close to the fire, close to the flame
                  A            E            A            E
There's nothing to do now, nowhere to be
                  A            E    B7            A            E
I've waited for you; now come closer to me

c#m                    B7            A            E
Come into the circle, be one of my own
c#m                    B7            A            B7
My heart is your castle; make it your home

A            E            A            E
Enter my court as a fortunate slave
                  A                    E            B7    A            E
Your chains have been broken; your debts have been paid
                  A                    E            A            E
So dance in the Silence, let your heart sing
A                    E            B7    A            E
Come to the garden; walk with your king
