

In the Season of the Rain

D C9 G
There is a darkness around me
D C9 G
I need some ruby shoes to run away
D C9 G
Once and for all I'd like to get someplace
D C9 G
But I am so afraid there's no escape

A G D
Oh you told, oh you told, you told me
A G D
That my poor heart could break
A G D
Will you hold, will you hold, will you hold me?
A G D
In the season of the rain

D C9 G
There is an ocean around me
D C9 G
I need a sacred boat to sail away
D C9 G
Into the loving arms of one fine day
D C9 G
Where I can find a place to lay down

CHORUS

D C9 G
Even the winter light is failing
D C9 G
I need some angel wings to fly away
D C9 G
I need to feel the summer on my face
D C9 G
Maybe my angel wings are waiting

CHORUS

©Cindy Lowe, 2001 / Recorded on Everlasting

Note: This is a simplified version. I play it with both E strings dropped to D's and add bass walk-downs but this will work.