

Lay Down

D
Too early in the morning for the sun to rise
A
Nothing out my window but the middle of the night
G D
I cry for you, oh my eyes, my eyes
D
My heart is heavy like it's made of steel
A
My mind is spinning like a Ferris wheel
G D
My loneliness so real

em G D A
I'm so tired I think I might lay down em G
Lay down, lay down, lay down
D
Dream about you

D
Sometimes you seem so far from me
A
But love runs strong and love runs deep –
G D
I can't fool destiny
D
Got a world of trouble I am going through
A
Not one thing I can do
G D
But lay down and dream about you

CHORUS

D
Too early in the morning for the sun to rise
A
Nothing out my window but the middle of the night
G D
I cry for you, oh my eyes, my eyes

CHORUS

©1980 &1991 Jeanne Nordeen & Cindy Lowe / Recorded on One Dream Away

Note: I capo this at the 6th fret (key of G#) and tune the 6th string down to D.