Mehera's Waiting

A E D A
On a long remembered day her Beloved left that way
D E
And Mehera was all alone
A E D A
Her loss was never less with time; He was always on her mind –
D E
She only wanted Him to call her home

D A E D
She waited by the mountain, tended to her garden
E D E
Turned the dust to roses, entertained His lovers
D A E D
Her eyes filled with diamonds, her heart broken
D E D E A
She told us to love Him, hold on and never let Him go

A E D A
She waited with her memories -- telling them did somehow ease
D E
Her grieving
A E D A
She told of happy days, talked of her Beloved's ways
D E
And shared her waiting

CHORUS

A E D A
She waited there for twenty years, cried a million lonely tears
D E
Clinging to the comfort of His name
A E D A
She waited for the moment when she could always be with Him
D E
And end her waiting

CHORUS

©1985 Cindy Lowe with inspiration and input from Raine Eastman, Joyce Barison & Christine Sanders Recorded on After All This Time

Note: I play a lot of this song with chords up the neck but this works.